

Andrew Leavitt, Ph.D.

Dr. Andrew J. Leavitt, the 11th Chancellor at the University of Wisconsin Oshkosh, is focused on enhancing students' success and engaging them in hands-on learning opportunities, promoting academic excellence, increasing the profile of undergraduate, graduate and faculty research and furthering the University's commitment to sustainability. With the vision and guidance of students, faculty, staff, alumni and University partners, Leavitt is helping transform the three-campus institution by expanding community engagement, driving economic development and building an inclusive and supportive institutional environment. He is also helping position the University as a research-enhanced comprehensive university by elevating existing research projects at UWO, increasing opportunities for research and driving innovation in curriculum.
